Many Events Slated for Southern Calif. in January

Roses and footballs, yachts and whales feature the interesting events in Southern California during January, according to the monthly calendar of the All-Year Club, issued today.

Decorated with from three to nine million fresh blossoms, the world-famous Tournament of Roses parade will thrill a throng in Pasadena on New Year's morning.

Off Marineland of the Pacific at Palos Verdes and also off Point Loma, there will be the spectacle of the annual migration of the California gray whale, en route south for warmer breeding waters. Lecturers have field glasses available to watchers at Marineland.

And in San Diego, as on every New Year's Day since 1888, members of the venerable San Diego Rowing Club will plunge into the bay, just to show the water's warm enough for them to do it.

Oregon plays Ohio State in the rose-landscaped Rose Bowl at Pasadena on New Year's Day and the Pro Bowl game will be played in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum January 12.

Another rose event will be held at Exposition Park, where the world's biggest rose garden of 15,000 bushes will be pruned Jan. 4. This will be attended by a throng of rose fanciers, to watch the experts demonstrate proper pruning and to receive some of the prized 3000 clip-

Plan Palos Verdes Drive

A major civic informational campaign to emphasize the twentieth century advantages of peninsula living was announced as a top priority project of the newly elected officers and board members of the Palos Verdes Realty Board this week.

"This long range program is to be launched immediately," reported Robert C. Allen, newly elected president. "It climaxes a year which has been the biggest in our history in residential sales and construction, and we fully expect 1958 to create a new record."

Allen accepted the gavel from the outgoing president, William Farner. Other new officers include Don E. Williams, vice-president; James L. Couch, treasurer, and Elsie Nees, secretary. Elected to the board of directors were Jack Kahlo, Al Truchin, Ray Burns, Frank Wright and Farner.
